REPORT OF FOUNDATION CLASS 2016-17 AT GOVERNMENT VICTORIA COLLEGE

Foundation Session' structure

With new innovations and ideas, team ASAP restarted the foundation classes for 2016-17 on 5thJuly 2017. This academic year was planned to give basic skills in English communication from the initial stage in different levels of modules, inculcating peer tutoring, team teaching, collaborative learning and so on. To improve the comprehension of the students, ASAP club inaugurated a new session, 'Metamorphosis' a reading activity before the session starts. At the first stage, all the students are provided with The Indian Express and The Deccan Chronicle, which they read from 7.45 to 8.20 AM. In the second level they will be asked to read The Hindu continuously for the next 180 hours. The next session is structured to make the students to be confident in creative thinking. Different balls with good picturisation were given to the students. Those who get the ball will initiate themselves to present a story of 3 minutes each in the class. These two extension activities are successful. World Reading Day was celebrated with gifting the students two Books of English authors- RK Narayan and Arthur Conan Doyle. A register is maintained by the Head girl of our club Johna and Anusree. The books will be circulated among all the students and by the end of September, every student expected to read at least one. Language elements are checked as a daily activity. Participation of the students is positive and reflects in their learning outcomes too. Total sessions handled in the month of July: 21. (Communication: 20 hours, IT: 1 hour)
